

Sokobaiṭ Taa Naṛmiṇ, Ṇmi Supanaiṭ
“Lords of the Plains, Know Us.”

COLORING BOOK

Illustrated by Cynthia Clay

Comanche National Museum and Cultural Center
Lawton, Oklahoma

Haa, Marɬawe! (Hello)

Greetings from the great Comanche Nation of Oklahoma!

We'd like to take this opportunity to introduce you to the traditions and culture known to Comanche children for centuries. We hope you take notice of the many wonderful and unique aspects of life available to children growing up on the Southern Plains. The Comanche National Museum and Cultural Center hopes to open your eyes and your mind to a new point of view.

When you look, take a moment to learn how many similarities there are to your life: home, family, pets and play. Life experiences are similar for everybody when you see the whole picture - it's all in how you color it.

The traditional colors for the Comanche people are royal blue, regal red and sunlight yellow and are still featured prominently on official tribal regalia and the Comanche Nation flag. With this book, we invite you add your own colors to the already colorful traditional life of Comanche children.

Ɔra, (Thank you)

Comanche National Museum Staff

© 2010 by Comanche National Museum and Cultural Center. All rights reserved

No part of this document may be reproduced or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise, without prior written permission of Comanche National Museum and Cultural Center.

back of letter
blank

inside back cover
blank

COMANCHE NATIONAL MUSEUM AND CULTURAL CENTER

Monday-Friday 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Saturday 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.
Closed Sunday

Admission is Free
Group Tours Welcome

701 NW Ferris Avenue
(behind McMahon Auditorium)
Lawton, OK 73507
580-353-0404

www.comanchemuseum.com

Email: info@comanchemuseum.com

